

John Crook

Barbara Crook

Barbara Bobbi JoAnn Crook, 39, of Orem succumbed September 22, 1991 at 6:40 p.m., at the Utah Valley Regional Medical Center of complications associated with an attempted second remission of acute leukemia, which first occurred in October 1988.

She was born September 30, 1951 in Pasadena, Texas to Robert Owen and Clara Bellitto Segraves. She married John Crook on March 10, 1978 in the Los Angeles LDS Temple.

She was raised in the Catholic Church and received her early education in Aruba, White Plains, N.Y., Phillipines, and Rosarian Academy in Florida. She graduated from LaGrange High School in Lake Charles, Louisiana, then received her B.A. degree in Spanish and her teaching credentials from Cal State Univ. at Fullerton, and did post graduate work at BYU.

Bobbi joined The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints during her senior year at Cal State in 1974. She was employed the last few years by BYU Transportation Services, first as a service writer in the auto shop then later in vehicle rental. She served in various responsibilities in her ward.

Survivors include her husband of Orem; three daughters, Tara Lee, Jordana Lyn, Nicole Marie all of Orem; her parents of Oxnard, Calif.; one sister, Teresa Hammouri of Anaheim Hills, Calif.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, September 26, 1991, at 11:00 a.m. at the Sunset Heights 6th Ward Chapel, 1104 West 600 South in Orem. Friends of the family may pay their respects earlier from 9:45 to 10:45 a.m. at the ward chapel. Interment will be in the East Lawn Memorial Hills Cemetery. Services under the direction of Sundberg-Olpin Mortuary of Orem.
